

1. Race

32 – “...Calpurnia had more education than most colored folk.”

24 – “Calpurnia was to blame for this”

24 – “Set me to a writing task...”

11 – “The sherriff didn’t have the heart to put [Boo] in jail alongside the negroes...”

2. Justice and Judgement

41 – “In certain circumstances the common folk judiciously allowed [the Ewells]...”

5 – “...the son-of-a-bitch had it coming to him...”

32 – “...what the sam hill he was doing...”

5 – “...Haverfords, in Maycomb county a name synonymous with jackass...”

33 – “He ain’t comp’ny, he’s just a Cunningham”

10 – “...they hung around the barbershop, they rode the bus to Abbotsville...”; “...and using abusive and profane language in the presence and hearing of a woman.”

3. Youth

32 – “Walter and Atticus talked like two men”

32 – “Did you pay a bushel of potatoes for him?”

4. Morality and Ethics

26 – “The Cunninghams never took anything they can’t pay back.”

41 – “Bob Ewell spends his relief checks on green whiskey...”

39 – “You never really understand a person until you understand things from his point of view.”

5. Fear

31 – “And who’s running, Miss Priss?” / “You are, when there ain’t nobody with you.”

11- “Radley pecans’ll kill you.”

31 – “Anybody who went up to the house once...”

10 – “Inside the house lived a phantom...”

11 – “A baseball hit into the Radley yard was a lost ball and no questions asked.”

11 – “A negro would not pass the Radley place at night...”

11 – “Boo drove the scissors into his parent’s leg, pulled them out...”

6. Women and Femininity

21 – “Caroline Fisher looked and smelled like a peppermint drop.”

12 – “...using abusive and profane language in the presence of a woman.”

7. Family

4 – “It was customary for the men in the family to remain...”

17 – “Jem had his little sister to think of the time I dared him...”

42 – “I had spent most of the day climbing up...”

21 – “Miss Caroline. He’s a Cunningham.”

27 – “He’s one of the Ewells, ma’am.”

8. Compassion and Forgiveness

40 “We cannot expect her to learn all of Maycomb’s ways in one day...”

38 – “Shut your eyes and open your mouth...”

38 – “..she wanted to make up with me, that was it.”

27 – “Why does he pay like that?...”

32 – “While Walter piled food on his plate, him and Atticus...”

5 – “There was nothing much Atticus could, except be present...”